

The ten best organic wines

Christelle Guibert, tasting director of Decanter, chooses naturally fermented wines that taste great, protect the planet and avoid pesky pesticides which ruin the quality of the grape.

◀ 2/10 ▶

Autoplay

2. Best luxury buy: Bodega Chacra, Pinot Noir 32 2007

Heavy on cherry fruit with mineral flavours. Fresh and vibrant on the palate with raspberry characters on the finish. A great southern hemisphere Pinot Noir. Price: £55, www.leaandsandeman.co.uk

See opening page

◀ The ten best organic wines

• Home > Life & Style > Food & Drink > Features

Like 17

0 tweet