

JAMES SUCKLING.COM

RATINGS 2014

BODEGA CHACRA PINOT NOIR RÍO NEGRO TREINTA Y DOS TASTING NOTE

Score

93

A pinot that has much more mineral character with dried strawberries and hints of cedar. Licorice too. Full body, with firm tannins that are polished and refined with gorgeous finish. It goes on for minutes. Give this at least two or three years more of bottle age.

Country Argentina
Region Patagonia
Vintage 2011
Date June 11th, 2014

BODEGA CHACRA PINOT NOIR RÍO NEGRO CINCUENTA Y CINCO TASTING NOTE

Score

92

Bright plum and dark cherry character with hints of dried orange peel. Medium body with ultra-fine tannins and a clean fresh finish. Reminds me of Sonoma Coast pinot. Fine and beautiful. So drinkable.

Country Argentina
Region Patagonia
Vintage 2012
Date June 11th, 2014

BODEGA CHACRA PINOT NOIR PATAGONIA BARDA TASTING NOTE

Score

90

Light brick-red color. A soft, creamy Pinot with light plum, milk chocolate and hints of rose. Medium to light body, bright acidity and a clean finish. Organically grown grapes. Drink now. Elegant and delicious.

Country Argentina
Region Patagonia
Vintage 2012
Date August 29th, 2014